Dog right.

Friday afternoon about fifty sporting men well-known in Ogden and vicinity took themselves out to the Hot Springs. and together with a number of the Evanston sporting fraternity, witnessed one of the greatest dog fights ever conducted in this Territory. The fight was between a noted Ogden dog and a canine brought from Evanston for the purpose, but who had been reared in Ohio. Both dogs had been in training for several weeks, and for the Ogden dog it was his third fight, he is reported as having killed both former adversaries. The visiting dog had won honors in a number of battles and never been whipped. The stakes be tween the owners was for $100 a side, but considerable money changed hands on the outside. Just before the fight a number of bets were offered by the viitors, but takers were scarce. The fight was to a finish, and some fifteen or sixteen rounds were fought, when the Ohio bred standard bearer of Wyoming Territory failed to come to time and the fight was given to the Ogden pup amid the cheers of the crowd. The visitors left for Evanston by the next train with a very much punished dog. In fact it was doubted by many if the dog would recover. The Ogden dog, who, by the way, is a great favorite, got off with comparatively slight injuries. one of the greatest dog fights ever con with comparatively slight injuries.
